Activities to support your child’s engagement, learning, and development

These physical development ideas can be adapted for one-on-one use, or for small groups.

- Active health and physical development play
- Active play for rainy days
- Let’s take a walk
- Move with math
- Active mathematics play
- Active science play
- Active language and literacy play

Click the links to download a PDF to view and/or print!